

I am gravely concerned to learn of Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is in clear defiance of fair use of the public airwaves and a demonstration of indifference toward active democracy.

This is also an example of the abuses that arise as a result of media consolidation. Sinclair's attempts indicate why we need to strengthen media ownership regulations.

I trust the FCC will prevent Sinclair's intended abuse of the public trust.

Sincerely,

Sara Eigen
